Response to Question 11

Government of Japan

As requested by the foreign principal, registrant advised and represented the foreign principal on U.S. laws, regulations, policies, proposed congressional measures and actions by the U.S. Congress, Executive Branch and U.S. Government agencies that may affect or relate to the interests of the foreign principal, the bilateral U.S.-Japan/Japan-U.S. relationship, and/or Japanese nationals, including corporations, or policy regarding the United Nations. In some instances, these services may have included representation in international trade-related matters and litigation. Registrant commenced work on a research project to assist and inform the Embassy of Japan on matters relating to potential compliance with the Hague Convention of 25 October 1980 on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction, which Hague Convention the Government of Japan has announced it will consider the possibility of joining. In addition, registrant also advised the Embassy of Japan on legal and regulatory matters relating to the Embassy and/or to its diplomats.

Government of Ontario, Ministry of Northern Development, Mines and Forestry, and Ministry of International Trade and Investment

Registrant rendered advice on U.S. and international laws, regulations, and policies concerning Canada-U.S. trade issues, and represented the interests of the principal in the Softwood Lumber from Canada dispute.

Royal Embassy of Saudi Arabia

Registrant provides legal counsel to the foreign principal in connection with general foreign policy and related matters. In addition, as requested by the foreign principal, the registrant rendered advice on legislative, regulatory and public policy activities of interest. The registrant also advised the foreign principal on media reports and related public affairs developments. As required, the registrant undertook specific advocacy assignments with regard to litigation, legislative, regulatory, public policy or public affairs matters, and/or in other activities.
